

TransitCenter, Inc. to Continue Focus on Sustainability of Public Transit Use

With the sale of TransitCenter, Inc.'s commuter benefit business to WageWorks, Inc., effective February 1, 2012, TransitCenter, Inc., the nonprofit organization established in 2000, will continue to operate and pursue its mission of promoting the use of public transportation to enhance the quality of life of commuters and travelers and improve the environment.

“On behalf of TransitCenter, Inc., we extend our best wishes to our former colleagues who will continue to work on the TransitChek commuter benefit program under the WageWorks umbrella,” stated Rosemary Scanlon, chair of TransitCenter. “At the same time, we look forward to the opportunities this presents for TransitCenter, Inc.”

TransitCenter will be based in New York, with staff also located in Washington, D.C. Our contact information is below.

New York Office:
200 Park Avenue
Suite 1700
New York, NY 10166
646-354-6515

Washington, D.C. Office:
1050 17th Street, NW
Suite 510
Washington, D.C. 20036
202-657-9619

Please visit www.transitcenter.org for continuing updates about our initiatives.

About TransitCenter:

TransitCenter is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to promote the conservation of natural resources, reduce traffic congestion and combat air pollution by supporting and promoting the use of public transportation, supporting government programs whose aims are to reduce congestion and improve air quality, and promoting understanding and communication among public transit providers, the business community, and the public of the benefits of using public transportation.